

Forest Lands Category

Virginia Land Conservation Foundation

Grants Workshop

Charlottesville, VA

May 19, 2011

Forest Lands Criteria

- Land in area of high potential for land use changes; limited forest cover remaining
- Land that:
  - protects drinking water sources
  - is in an important watershed
  - and/or is along an impaired watercourse

Forest Lands Criteria

- Land that is managed according to a multiple-resource management plan
- Land that is adjacent, or nearby, already conserved land
- Land suitable for long-term scientific research, demonstration, or conservation education

Forest Lands Criteria

- Land that is within an important conservation area, as identified in the local Comprehensive Plan
- Land that has potential to protect or restore:
  - Threatened and endangered species habitat
  - Diminished natural tree species
  - Historic, archeological, or geologic sites

Potential for Conversion by County

Potential for Conversion by County

Potential for Conversion by County

Counties_VaLCCc1

Crit1Revised

High Quality Watersheds
+
Watersheds with Drinking Water Sources

Questions?

Rob Farrell

Asst. Director, Forestland Conservation

(434) 220-9063

rob.farrell@dof.virginia.gov

Larry Mikkelsen

Land Acquisition Coordinator

(434) 220-9091

larry.mikkelsen@dof.virginia.gov

Website: <http://www.dof.virginia.gov>

Forest Lands Category

